Alegro Health Corp. Announces That Dr. William Orovan has Joined Its Board

TORONTO, ONTARIO--Alegro Health Corp. ("AGO.P" - TSX-V) announced today that Dr. William Orovan has joined its board of directors.

Dr. Orovan is a professor and the Chair of the Department of Surgery at McMaster University. Dr. Orovan has been a member of the faculty since 1981. Dr. Orovan has an MBA from Queens University, and received both B.Sc. (Chemistry) and M.D. degrees from McMaster. He is a Fellow of both the Royal College of Surgeons (Canada) and the American College of Surgeons. Dr. Orovan is a former president of the Ontario Medical Association and Board Member of the Canadian Medical Association. He has received numerous awards, been a member of many health care related committees, and has a depth of experience with public policy issues pertaining to health care.

"We are both fortunate and pleased to have someone with Dr. Orovan's qualifications and capabilities join the Alegro Board of Directors" said Brenda Rasumussen, Chairman and CEO.

The appointment of Dr. Orovan is subject to final approval by the TSX Venture Exchange.

Alegro continues to work towards finalizing the acquisition of Work Able Centres Inc, a private Ontario disability management services company. This transaction will serve as Alegro's Qualifying Transaction for purposes of the TSX Venture Exchange's policy for Capital Pool Companies. Further details about Alegro's proposed Qualifying Transaction are set out in a press release dated August 28, 2002.
